

Executive Coaching: Face to Face

One 2 One Confidential Support

We offer a mobile consultancy service, where we travel (UK, Europe and Internationally) to meet you at a venue of your choice, perhaps:

- Your place of work
- Your home
- An agreed meeting place (additional fees may be charged)

The great outdoors or golf courses can also be fantastic venues as it is not unusual for our clients to arrive at a session feeling overwhelmed or tired due to the stresses and strains of their day or week. They often bring feelings of anxiety or tension, as they constantly juggle different priorities.

A large part of our role is to shift your focus. By simply getting you mobile and by experiencing the wonderful outdoors you can do so. Think about when you go on a relaxing holiday, do you feel more refreshed?

We can offer a variety of options on a One to One basis to help you move forward and achieve your objectives. Personalised improvement programmes are tailored to meet your individual requirements where contact time can vary with a minimum of 9 hours offered.

Through years of experience we recognize that behaviour change is not a straight-forward process and can be time and energy consuming therefore the minimum time-frame we will work with you in our programmes is for six months. Our reason for this decision is that we want to help everyone we work with achieve sustainable results, we do not work with people who are looking for a shortcut or quick fix.

A hugely powerful method we often employ for executives who really want to be challenged includes:

- Interviewing other people in your domain who are influential
- Deploying a 360 feedback assessment
- Observing you conducting business meetings, interviews or presentations
- Having you complete a series of self-assessments
